

SCOTT'S HOUSE

ADMISSION CRITERIA

January 21, 2022

- _____ Resident must be registered with a hospice agency.
- _____ Latest doctor's medical reports are provided to Scott's House prior to admission.
- _____ List of medications provided.
- _____ Scott's House Admission Application is submitted to Scott's House at least six hours prior to resident being admitted.
- _____ All COVID vaccinations or negative test provided taken 24 hours before admission.
- Resident has a short-term life expectancy of less than two months.
- DNR in place and on file.
- The resident desires to be a Scott's House resident and to be cared for by volunteers.
- The resident does not have a known contagious resident disease. Scott's House reserves the right to deny permission to patients with an active contagious disease that may place other residents and staff at risk.
- The resident's care needs can be met in a non-medical setting and will not exceed the staff's capabilities. Scott's House is not able to provide care for a resident requiring IV medications.
- The hospice provide recommends the admission and agrees upon the plan of care. The plan of care will be with the involvement and consent of the resident and responsible family member or designated patient representative.
- Scott's House will solely determine order of admission.
- Resident does not intend to utilize an "Aid in Dying" protocol while being a Scott's House resident.
- No smoking.
- Resident and resident's family must have no combative or anger issues.
- No alcohol or substance abuse issues.
- Weight of under 200 pounds. Height and Weight provided.
- Limited space for personal belongings. Clear instructions regarding disposal of personal items.
- Resident must be accompanied by hospice agency nurse and hospice agency nurse administers first dose before leaving facility.
- Is patient 100% bedbound? Does patient get out of bed for any reason? Is patient diapered? Does patient utilize a catheter?
- A discharge plan provided in the event patient's condition stabilizes.
- Funeral home information provided.
- Upon passing, close relative or POA contact information provided.
- Admission hours are 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM.